THE LEGENDARY GEORGE SPIES CABERNET

The wine in question remains somewhat of a unicorn wine, never officially sold to the public, but passed around to his friends and family by winemaker George Spies in the 1960s. George Spies was an art teacher from the Eastern Cape with no formal education in winemaking. Nonetheless, George started in the lab at Belleville Winery (started by Monis), which later merged with the Stellenbosch Farmers Winery, which ULTIMATELY became Distell. Meaning George was a winemaker back when we were alcohol farmers, not WINE farmers. George was different though, in the 1950s, when it said Cabernet on the bottle, it usually only meant about 50% Cabernet, blended with Cinsault and other heritage grape varieties. The fact that George added 100% on this particular wine label then of particular interest, AND the fact that he was making it from a single site (BEFORE we made wine from single sites). The exact location remains under dispute, though most accounts seem to agree that the grapes came from Durbanville from a vineyard named Morgenster, near Altydgedacht. George only made two vintages before he was asked to stop by his superiors. The hallowed 1966 and the 1968 – apparently it was a superstition back in the day that they only made wines from even vintages... One is left wondering what might have transpired had he been allowed to continue production.

Champagne

ARMAND DE BRIGNAC GOLD BRUT Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, Pinot Meunier – Peach, apricot and red berry aromas are followed by crystallised citrus, orange blossom and hints of brioche. The palate is rich with cherries, exotic fruits and a touch of lemon, vanilla and honey. The mouth-feel is soft and creamy, with a hint of toastiness, from the unique Armand de Brignac dosage which is aged for one year in French oak barrels.	NV	R9,800
DRAPPIER BRUT NATURE Chardonnay, Pinot Noir – Vermilion gold in colour. Nose of freshly pressed black grapes, of red, white and citrus fruits. Ample palate with flesh of vineyard peach and bouquet of aromatic herbs. Small spicy notes in the finish. A fine, tightly knit Champagne of great purity. 92 Points Wine Spectator	NV	R2,550
DOM PÉRIGNON VINTAGE BRUT Chardonnay, Pinot Noir – The bouquet spirals through sweet, bright floral notes and the lively minerality so typical of Dom Pérignon, then notes of candied fruit, plants, the incredible freshness of camphor leaf and finally the dark hints of spices and liquorice root. The palate is mild and delicate at first then strongly, confidently mineral, persistent, precise, with a refined bitterness, and iodine, saline tang.	2003	R12,000*
DOM PÉRIGNON VINTAGE BRUT Chardonnay, Pinot Noir – The 2006 Dom Pérignon comes from a very rich vintage with an early ripeness that brought a lot of aromatic maturity. The white-golden prestige cuvée contains a bit more Chardonnay than Pinot Noir and opens with a deep and seductive, pretty accessible nose with intense yet fresh fruit aromas of pineapples, with peaches and tangerines. Lively and elegant on the palate, this is a full-bodied, unusually aromatic and fruity DP with a long and tension-filled expression. 96 Points Robert Parker	2006	R11,000*
DOM PÉRIGNON VINTAGE BRUT Chardonnay, Pinot Noir – A firm and vivid Champagne with a precise, focused palate. Full-bodied and dry. It's very layered and bright with light pineapple, peach, praline, cooked-apple and stone aromas and flavours. It's very subtle and focused at the end. Integrated with richness and high acidity. Good depth. Very clean. Solid. 98 Points James Suckling	2010	R10,500*
DOM PÉRIGNON VINTAGE BRUT Chardonnay, Pinot Noir – The nose is full and varied, mingling flowers with fruit and the vegetal with the mineral. The bouquet is tactile with powdery white flowers and nectarous apricot followed by the freshness of rhubarb and mint and the minerality of ash. Energy dominates on the palate. After a welcoming opening, the wine quickly becomes vibrant and then explodes with a surge of effervescence and tonic.	2012	R11,000
DOM PÉRIGNON VINTAGE BRUT Chardonnay, Pinot Noir – The precise, elegant and tactile bouquet blooms in an extremely delicate powdery aromatic braid around three nuances: first citrus, then a more vegetal facet and lastly, spices. The delicate nose unfolds in swathes of colour. The green of eucalyptus, mint and vetiver, the yellow-orange of Mirabelle plums, apricot and orange blossom, the brown of pepper, cardamom and liquorice sticks, and finely silvery saline and toasted hues.	2013	R10,000
DOM PÉRIGNON VINTAGE BRUT Chardonnay, Pinot Noir – The 2015 Dom Pérignon is terrific. Bright and poised, the 2015 shows terrific energy. Citrus peel, white flowers, mint, white pepper and slate all race across the palate. There's gorgeous tension and backbone here, with bright saline notes that extend the mid-palate and finish. This is a fine showing in a vintage that has proven to be tricky. 96 Points Antonio Galloni	2015	R9,500

SPARKLING WINE

Wines of the World

DOM PÉRIGNON VINTAGE BRUT Chardonnay, Pinot Noir – An acute smell of petrichor, together warm and fresh. The scent of a heady flower, of jasmine. The complex touch of candied zest, altogether vegetal and fruity, soft and grainy. Dom Pérignon Vintage 2017 feels like a substance in zero gravity, with the fluidity of a moving mass.	2017	R8,950
DOM PÉRIGNON VINTAGE ROSÉ Chardonnay, Pinot Noir – The bouquet instantly opens with raspberries, rapidly joined by notes of violet. Greener nuances then arrive, evoking angelica. On the palate the acidic foundation – the signature of the vintage – articulates the structure of the pinot, vibrating the heart of the wine. The affirmed, persistent finish is peonies and white pepper.	2009	R9,900*
DOM PÉRIGNON P2 VINTAGE BRUT Chardonnay, Pinot Noir – The bouquet evolves like a spiral – an initial sweetness of linden flowers, followed by a heady minerality, then crystallised raspberry & fig. A cool rush of lemon verbena, white pepper and rosemary rises for an instant, before plunging into spiciness.	2003	R12,500*
DOM PÉRIGNON P2 VINTAGE BRUT Chardonnay, Pinot Noir – Wafting from the glass with aromas of sweet orchard fruit, fresh peach, pastry cream, buttered toast and cotton candy that display a less reductive profile than the original disgorgement. Medium to full-bodied, pillowy and charming, with an ample, enveloping core of fruit, succulent acids and a pretty pinpoint mousse, it concludes with a long, sapid finish.	2004	R12,000*
KRUG GRANDE CUVÉE 170ÈME ÉDITION Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier – Striking citrus focus here, with intense yellow citrus aromas, such as lemon and grapefruit, as well as flinty notes, wet stones and dried flowers, such as chamomile. Just the beginning of more savoury character, in the form of toast, cocoa powder and grilled nuts. The palate has a very taut, youthful and unevolved feel, showing elevated acidity and verticality as a central feature, around which the body and depth has been assembled. 96 Points James Suckling	NV	R7,500
LOUIS ROEDERER CRISTAL BRUT Chardonnay, Pinot Noir – A perfect combination of softness and concentration, matched by a masterful maturity, Cristal 2015 delivers intense and delicious aromas with a superb energy and a magical vibration. The nose begins with hints of yellow fruit, toasted almonds and wheat from the Chardonnay, combined with the juicy red fruit of the Pinot Noir. Then comes the great surge of energy from the wine's structure, a vibratory intensity that transforms into a gentle caress, a silky texture interwoven with fine flavours of candied citrus and iodised spices.	2015	R11,000
RUINART BRUT Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier – Visually, its radiance is crystalline with shimmering yellow and golden hues. The nose is delicate and fruity displaying dominant aromas of fresh white pear, hazelnuts and almonds. The finish displays white flower notes, Viennese pastry and buttered brioche.	NV	R2,650
VEUVE CLICQUOT LA GRANDE DAME 90% Pinot Noir, 10% Chardonnay – This solar vintage, while elegant and precise, offers fresh minerality with light floral notes of jasmine and acacia on the nose, which evolve into fruity notes of pear and clementine.	2015	R6,500

Tasmania

JANSZ PIPERS RIVER VINTAGE Chardonnay, Pinot Noir – Pale gold with a delicate bead and fine mousse. Intense aromas of honeysuckle, citrus zest, lemon curd and sea spray are overlaid with complex notes of sweet brioche, toast and nougat. The palate is elegantly structured with flavours of preserved lemon, white peach, wild strawberries, sea spray and truffle. Over three years ageing on yeast lees in bottle has built further complexity and subtle nuances of nougat and roasted hazelnuts.	2017	R1,950

MAISON THÉO DANCER GAMAY	2022	R2,400
100% Gamay – Theo intervenes as little as possible in the vineyards and he is a strong supporter of agroforestry. He works all vineyards organically and does not intervene in the cellar either. Théo does not work with new oak barrels and avoids sulphite as much as possible. Floral notes and lots of red fruit in nose and taste of this wine. The taste is rich and generous with soft tannins. Wine served chilled is a great pairing with many light poultry or red meat dishes.

EDOUARD CONFURON BOURGOGNE	2023	R2,000
100% Pinot Noir – It comes from the area between Nuits-Saint-Georges and Vosne, and includes 30% whole clusters, which would have been more if the harvest had given the needed conditions. It's fresh and intense, with delicate fruit and good energy.
EDOUARD CONFURON NUITS-SAINT-GEORGES AU ALLOTS VILLAGE	2023	R2,950
100% Pinot Noir – 3 barrels made, one new, 100% whole bunch vinification. No cold pre-maceration. A little deeper in crimson. A touch of oak on the nose and the stems are not too obvious. They pop up a bit in the middle of the rich strawberry fruit on the palate and have their usual drier effect at the back – something that resolves easily with time in bottle. A long supple finish.

DOMAINE ROBERT CHEVILLON NUITS-SAINT-GEORGES “VIEILLES VIGNES” 100% Pinot Noir – A supple red, saturated with black cherry, blackberry, tar and mineral flavours. Dusty tannins coat the gums and compact the finish a little, yet this feels balanced, and the fruit returns in the end.	2022	R2,650
BOUCHARD PÈRE & FILS BEAUNE 1ER CRU LES TEURONS 100% Pinot Noir – The Bouchard holding is up slope on the limestone, the first vineyard to be picked. Rich intense purple. DOMAINE DE LA ROMANÉE-CONTI CORTON GRAND CRU 100% Pinot Noir – A full dark magenta purple. Plums, cherries, raspberries, there is plenty going on from first sniff without the 2022 Corton losing its grace. On the palate this wine is sensual and offers impressive density. CHÂTEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD PAUILLAC PREMIER GRAND CRU CLASSÉ Cabernet Sauvignon Blend – The wine has an intense, vivid colour with a lovely violet tint. The nose opens rapidly on very rich aromas, combining juicy ripe fruit, blackberry and crushed blackcurrant with more complex notes of fine oak that usher in aromas of vanilla, mocha and cedarwood. Full on the palate, showing roundness and refinement on nicely present, stylish and well-rounded tannins, it mingles very ripe, almost jammy fruit with touches of toast, caramel and spice, building to a highly expressive finish that has charm, power and length. 95 Points Robert Parker	2003	R23,000
CHÂTEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD PAUILLAC PREMIER GRAND CRU CLASSÉ Cabernet Sauvignon Blend – The 2005 Château Mouton-Rothschild is a deeply impressive First Growth. It has been blessed with a sensational nose that comes racing out of the blocks with audacious scents of black fruit, cedar, smoke and pencil box (Philippe Dhalluin mentioned that the signature smokiness/fireside hearth was tangible in around 80% of the vats during élevage). There is a sense of bravura here, of aristocracy. The palate is medium-bodied with sumptuous black fruit. 98 Points Robert Parker	2005	R23,000

DOMAINE JAMET CÔTE-RÔTIE 100% Syrah – Medium-bodied, very soft and silky with lovely acidity - very fresh. DOMAINE JAMET CÔTE-RÔTIE 100% Syrah – Darker in fruit profile with a lick of black olive, this carries the ripeness of the vintage well on the nose. A big wine for this estate but still very enjoyable with enough aromatic X factor.	2018	R5,500*

DESSERT WINES

Between 1830 and 1865, Jacobus Andreas Joubert (fifth generation Pierre Joubert), filled a 150L French Oak barrel with Muscat d'Alexandrie. Used for limited, but greatly appreciated libation by the Wellington Dutch Reformed Church, the Joubert family barrel of Muscat became a local treasure over the years.

More than a century and a half after the first Muscat was produced from the barrel, a very watchful eye is kept over this barrel by the tenth generation. Locked away in an underground cellar on the family wine estate Joubert Tradauw in the Little Karoo, two thirds of the barrel is made up of yeast that has sunk to the bottom of the barrel. These yeasts are referred to as the must or the mother of the wine.

Using the Solera system, twelve 275ml bottles are filled every three years. Great care is taken during bottling so as not to disturb the mother of the wine. The bottles are hand-blown in Swaziland by Family owned Ngwenya Glass. Made out of recycled glass, each bottle is a once off working free-hand and not with a mould.

It comes with belief of the tenth generation Pierre Joubert that in tasting this wine you will taste magic. Magic that is created by blending a proud wine making tradition with Muscat grapes, the sun, water and earth from the beautiful land that is South Africa.

The Joubert family is an institution in the SA wine industry and their family traces back to 1709 when Pierre Joubert purchased La Motte Wine Estate in Franschhoek. They then farmed in Wellington for more than 200 years before planting grapes in the Tradouw Valley outside Barrydale. As far as they can remember, the family treated themselves on special occasions to Muscat d'Alexandrie, drawn from a single barrel that was passed down from generation to generation.

'It has an iridescent clear amber hue with green tints on the rim. The nose is simply stellar: candied orange peel, toffee, apricot and almond soar from the glass and fix you to the spot. The palate is perfectly balanced and fresher than some South African wines two centuries younger! It has a Sauternes-like viscosity but is not cloying like a Tokaji Essenzia. There is a touch of sherbet at the tip of the tongue and then it fans out towards a kaleidoscope of spice, clove, candied fruits and a touch of honey. One can discern an oxidative tang towards the finish that has a touch of volatility. Very long and intense and yet somehow refined and elegant, this is an ethereal experience. Drink now-2100+.'

DESSERT WINES

Back in 1974, two winemakers from Breedekloof entered into a friendly wager. One claimed it was impossible to mature a Muscat d’Alexandrie for any length of time. The other winemaker believed otherwise. His name was Philippus Petrus Deetlefs. To prove his theory, he filled a third of a tank with Hanepoot lees, and the remaining two thirds with Hanepoot wine, and in closing the tank, he began a new chapter in the Deetlefs story. Fifteen years later, in 1989, the tank was opened. Inside was a unique and sublimely flavoured wine.

Today, this Muscat d’Alexandrie is deemed one of the world’s rarest wines, as the small volume of this very special batch is decreasing. In honour of Philippus Deetlefs’ legacy, only one small batch of Muscat d’Alexandrie will be made every twenty five years.

It is this passion for innovation that has defined the Deetlefs Family wine estate throughout its over 200-year history. And although more than 50 years may seem like a long time to make a wine, this Muscat d’Alexandrie 1974 is proof that certain things are well worth the wait.

Unique & exquisitely flavoured, this is a wine that can only be described as a “sweet stunner”.

KLEIN CONSTANTIA — 1685 —

Vin de Constance, Klein Constantia's iconic sweet wine, is the revival of one of history's most celebrated wines. Originally crafted from vineyards planted by Simon van der Stel in 1685, this legendary wine was enjoyed by royalty, statesmen, and literary giants such as Napoléon before disappearing in the late 19th century. In 1980, under the visionary stewardship of the Jooste family, Klein Constantia fearlessly reclaimed this heritage, meticulously resurrecting Vin de Constance from historic vine stock and breathing new life into its legacy. Ever traditionally avant-garde, today it continues to inspire the world – embracing its storied past while confidently shaping the future.
